

GREG GREEN - Magpie Funeral Director's Bio:

Greg grew up in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. At age nine, he found an 8mm camera and started making movies. He attended the University of Iowa and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in film.

Decades later his second feature, 3 OF A KIND, won Best Picture & Best Director at the 2012 Houston International Film Festival.

His latest feature, MAGPIE FUNERAL, is a personal story about never letting go of your dreams. The film stars Darren Burrows (Northern Exposure, Cry Baby, Love is Strange) as Sy McMurphy.

Director's Statement:

Each heart beat moves me closer to death. But while I breathe, I hope. For me, this is MAGPIE FUNERAL in a nutshell - somewhat autobiographical and straight from my soul. Perhaps your heart will beat a bit differently after watching. Maybe a bit lighter. I hope.
